Morale

1. [redacted] 25X1
[redacted] soldiers were complaining about the long training hours and lack of passes and leaves. [redacted] received only one seven-day leave during [redacted] 25X1 entire 2½ years of service with the Polish Army. Soldiers also resented the political indoctrination which was presented in favor of the USSR.

Purges

2. [redacted] trials in 1950 of Generals (fmu) TATAR and (fmu) SPYCHALSKI, Colonels (fmu) RZEPECKI and (fmu) PIASECKI. The charges were treason and espionage for Western powers, suspicion of advocating the overthrow of the present regime, and Titoism. 25X1
3. In 1951, Admiral (fmu) STEYER was demoted from his position as admiral of the Polish fleet. A purge of high naval officers, who were on active duty before World War II, followed this demotion. [redacted] Commanders (fmu) RYSZARD, (fmu) DIADEK, and (fmu) CHIELOWIEJSKI were relieved from duty. Naval Captain (fmu) DRONKA [redacted] was sentenced to 15 years in prison on charges of treason or espionage for the Western imperialists. [redacted] 25X1

Role of the Polish Army in the Conflict Between East and West

- 25X1 4. [] in the event of a conflict between the East and West, the Polish Army would not be used against the West but 25X1 would be sent to the East. [] the majority of the Polish soldiers were prepared for armed revolt against the Soviets and the present Polish regime.

Civilians Wearing Army Uniforms

- 25X1 5. [] Polish civilians wearing parts of army-type uniforms 25X1 or US and British manufacture. []

Youth Movements

6. The instructors of the Service to Poland (Sluzba Polsce - SP) were Polish Army Officers. All youths in Poland between the ages of 16 and 18 had to join the SP. SP members received three to six months training in close-order drill, marksmanship, as well as political indoctrination.
7. Only volunteers from 14 to 25 who could give two ZMP members as references were accepted into the Union of Polish Youth (Zwiazek Mlodziezy Polskiej). Members had to be sons of peasants and workers or sons of members of the United Polish Workers' Party (Polska Zjednoczona Partia Robotnicza - PZPR). ZMP workers with a special letter of recommendation from ZMP headquarters, had preference in attending officers' school, and could choose their branch of service.

8. Children from 7 to 14 years of age had to join the Polish Scout Organization (Zwiazek Harcerstwa Polskiego - ZHP). []

Passive Anti-Aircraft Defense, Restrictions, and Coastal Defense

- 25X1 9. [] a public order in May or June 1952 [] forbade 25X1 bathing on non-public beaches along the Gdansk and Szczecin coastal area. Swimming on public beaches was restricted to the hours between sunrise and sunset. Movements in fields, forests, and forest paths along the entire coastal area of Poland at night was forbidden under penalty of arrest by the security forces.

- 25X1 10. [] naval engineers were planting mines in water two meters deep along the entire coastal area in Poland. Bunkers and artillery positions were being constructed along the entire coastal area of Gdansk and Szczecin.

Propaganda

11. In newspapers and newsreels the Polish Communist regime claimed that in Korea the US forces were using bacteriological bombs, starving and killing PWs and children, raping women, and robbing; that the US population was using narcotics, and the US was filled with homosexuals; US soldiers were deserting in Korea; US forces were bombing hospitals, schools and civilian homes in Korea; US PWs were sending petitions to the US to change the US from a capitalistic government to a peoples' government; that the Peoples' Army in North Korea was treating US PWs very well, and the food given US PWs was excellent.
